Barangay Calaocan
Cabarroguis, Quirino

Brief History of the Barangay

In 1971, Calaocan was once a sitio of Ifugao Village, a Barangay of Diffun, Quirino. This sitio was named Taltal. The word "taltal" was derived from the Ilocano word "tallo" which means Three that represents the three households who were living in the place that time. The residents often go down to the town proper of Cabarroguis to buy their immediate needs since Sitio taltal is nearer to Cabarroguis than Diffun.

A year later after the declaration of Martial Law, the residents of the sitio and nearby sitios headed by the older folks agreed and decided to open a new barangay for them to live in and develop. They consulted the Mayor of the Municipality of Cabarroguis about the matter and to their great delight; the desire of having a Barangay was created and was named Barangay Calaocan.

The name Calaocan is an Ilocano word means mixed because the residents are mixture of different tribes and of different beliefs, customs and traditions. These tribes were as follows: Ifugaos, Ibalays and Bagos.

In 1973, Barangay Calaocan was then a full pledge Barangay of the Municipality of Cabarroguis under the Administration of Mayor Anastacio dele Pena, by virtue of Republic Act No. 5554 enacted by the Philippine Congress authored by then Honorable Senator Leonardo Perez. From that time on, many residential houses were built and sprouted like mushrooms because this barangay served as relocation of Ambuklao Dam in Mountain Province.

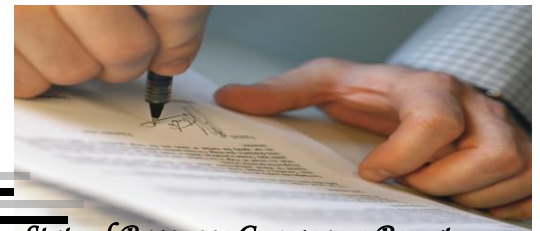

Now, Barangay Calaocan has six puroks and three sitios namely: taltal, little kapangan and little Banaue hills.

In order that cooperation and solidarity will reign in the place, devoted and energetic leaders were elected. The following were the seven Barangay Captains who have served diligently. Luis Lobyoc (1973-1978), Jose Pugongan (1978-1980), Marcos Bayeng(1980-1988),Marciano Immapa(1988-1992),Peter Tangid(1992-1997),Joaquin Pohnac(1997-2000), former Barangay Captain Marciano Immapa from year 2000 up to 2013, Captain Rufino C. Galian 2014-JUNE 2018 and the newly elected Punong Barangay Hon. Fernando M. Dango.

Having different tribes living in the Barangay was never a hindrance for progress because the people have common aspirations and goal that is progress through active, energetic and sincere leaders and followers.
